COMMUNITY MEMBERS EXPERIENCES

“The Guys and Dolls collaboration between The New Paradigm Theatre Company and The Norwalk Symphony Orchestra, directed by Kristin Huffman and conducted by Jonathan Yates, was a wonderfully entertaining and innovative evening. The cast was comprised of top-notch Broadway performers plus young students, and their interaction was a pleasure to watch, not to mention how creatively and playfully the director used the space, and the on-stage orchestra to create so many delightful moments. I’ve lived in Norwalk for over twenty years and I’d never been to a Norwalk Symphony concert. I now plan to attend many more.”

— David Friedman, Film and theatre composer, songwriter, author, lyricist and conductor

“Just want you to know that the Saturday evening performance of Guys and Dolls was the BEST show I have ever seen at The Norwalk Symphony Orchestra! I can’t believe they only had 6 days of rehearsal. The music, the cast, the singing, the lighting, and the acting all came together flawlessly. I felt like I went to a Broadway show. Thank you for pulling this altogether for us Norwalkers! Bravo.”

— Maria C., NSO ticket holder

“The amount of professional talent on stage is staggering - what NPT does for local youth, creating these amazing opportunities to interact with and learn from seasoned professionals, is amazing. It’s one of the main reasons I keep coming back. Getting to collaborate with the Norwalk Symphony Orchestra is the icing on the cake.”

— Chris Andrade, Choir Director and Music Technology teacher at Darien High School and director of the Coastal Mix barbershop chorus

ARTISTIC COLLABORATION AND IMPACT

“GUYS AND DOLLS with the Norwalk Symphony Orchestra was absolutely terrific! Perfectly cast and directed, Kristin Huffman utilized the space brilliantly. A resounding success for NPT!”

— Paul Bogaev, Grammy and Emmy winner

“Working with NPT and Norwalk Symphony Orchestra was a dream come true. The partnership between Kristin Huffman's stage and acting direction and Jonathan Yates's musical leadership created an environment that was joyful, dynamic, and deeply collaborative. Singing these glorious scores alongside such talented artists made Oklahoma! and Guys and Dolls some of the most meaningful experiences of my career.”

— Heidi Giberson, Broadway performer

“When you've played a role twice, it can be hard to clear your mind when you see a new production of the show without you in it. You know all the lines and lyrics, still! But it's also a huge treat to see how the same words come out when imagined through a new director and cast. If you missed the one-night only performance last night, you missed an amazing show perfectly cast, staged, and performed. The Norwalk Symphony Orchestra—wow. This is the beauty of theatre...seeing a show more than once, it's never the same twice! Huge congrats to all on a stellar Guys and Dolls last night! The New Paradigm Theatre, with the Norwalk Symphony.”

— Randye Kaye, WSHU Radio/NPR radio host and author

“As a three-time performer with NPT and The Norwalk Symphony Orchestra it is an absolute masterclass watching these brilliant actors make such clever and thoughtful choices and shine on stage. The opportunity of getting a peek into the professional world that NPT brings to its younger members is an experience I will never forget. I always say that it is my favorite week of the year, and for good reason! Thank you to the Norwalk Symphony Orchestra for giving me chills every song and to NPT for an amazing production of Guys and Dolls!” — Lily Thompson, East Granby High School & NPT Youth Board Member
